Hortonville High School Field House

CAMP SUMMARY: The Polar Bear Pitching Camp is structured to accomplish one main goal: to give your son the opportunity to work with experienced coaches to develop his pitching/throwing mechanics and knowledge. Your son will receive individual and group instruction on the proper mechanics of pitching and throwing. At the end of the day, individual and group competitions will be held and prizes awarded. Anybody who wants to learn the proper way to throw a baseball will benefit from this camp.

CAMP DIRECTOR: DON WILLIAMS-HHS VARSITY COACH

During his 30 years as the head baseball coach, Williams' teams have won over 475 games, made 8 tournament appearances, won 3 state championships and 18 conference titles. During Williams' tenure at Hortonville, many of his pitchers have gone on to have successful college pitching careers, and one, Dave Gassner, recorded his first Major League victory in 2005.
